maistian nimm lines or loss, and fitte games for an haubsequent insertion. L' mail de l'attons male to thuse who adver

Time with at hito see themselves as offma he accomin Lated by calling Mr. Stewart's Daguerrean Sig Light Gallery. rtis m mr in another colon a.

Por T - election in Vigginia to k place yettorler. We expect in a few days to hear glorious

Den For New A vertisements Conneil Pr continue Special Notices, planhoun schouts of k male May z'no for Andl is I is an inter at no number. This ori de lisra- rin od fromt e origi-Her' M or z'ne, by Longr' Sut & Y k. Su's ri fion price for that r vi w . ten dollars ner annum. on the whole only eighty conts a

A thur S. N v't has been appointed Parm at r at N w Och ans, in the place o r mov al, and entered upon the discharge or his duties.

7 M. M. K was violat d his oath of se creev to the Know N hings because they are not an in morniel society, authorized by a t un "to sue, pr seen e, recover, de." That is na 'invested na him from the commission o perior but the f ar of prograf on for the crime or the dinger of being sur!, and damages rear. end against him for the injury which his perju r in my do to others.

gra. We are glad to learn that the law established Ishing operatine below New Orleans has bee over. The anthorities of New Orleans ow it to the vast pop I tion along the river the as he their city the commercial emportum to the system of Quaran The a tria!

T IE WINDERINGJEW, OR A COME" Either a Cometor the Wandering Jew is conhe very near us and scorching up the ear'h. A it was in the old days of Elijah, when it didn' rain for six months, and the sky became as brass and the earth pawder, so is it now, Our country friends in the Big Black region inform us that they have no stands of cotton. Now and then a seed servats, but it is withered up by the scorching heat of the son. In town we are almost stewer or la'el. W have worked in our sanctum al the week, hoping and trusting never, never to ge into a better place than this, even on the other side of Jorden. While we write a little imp singing the lines compred last syn mer during the dog days by a distinguished local poet:

"O its hot out here, as everybody knows And everybody's sweatin accordin' Everybody sweats from his head to his toes, And they're sweating on the other side o'

ron. Since our outside was worked of, we have received so many add tions to our a bacription ways hoping and arrying as drag chain to the list that we are not able this week to supply the cruzy whee so the Loco Foco g -cart that has demand - but we will next week.

TIE LAUDERDALE S TY V. MCKINNON.-In the carl, purporting to have been signed by sixty secoling Know Nothings of Lauderdale county the sixty state that they will reveal none of the se rots of h ord r, be ause their obligation spersor is I a long. What a vi bering rebuke to M . M Z anon, who thought he obligation nug dong a cause the Know Nothings cannot sue in proseute h n. or recoper against . i . dama gos for the perjury which he canfe sos.

ANTI KNOW NOTHING MORALS. and Paley w. If been ally confounded, cond pull shed, becam public p operty, and are e - we trust, may I ng be pres reed. may perhaps do so in our nex number.

worthy of much consideration. We therefore ally the same that well tain so unlawfulness in them to destr y their bim from committing the detestable crime of Wit out this reform, in our d liberate opinion, sor of St. Pater, is a por oblig tion; for as the info mation would not requery."

Taus Mr. M. Kinnon careful

"shan't disagree about it."

Tas lady wno took every nous vere, must eral reasons have induced this change it is not necessary for us to state at length. I the change suits us, as we are the principal one ! terest d, we presume it will be satisfactory to the readers and patrons of the ild time hon-

The existence of the Yaz o City Whig was alm at co-existent with the Whig party - th t party in the partians nen of the term. was est slished in 1833 during G n. Jackson's THE KNOW NOTHINGS AND THEIR inistr tion and advocated all the measres of the War apposition leaders of that day, and has ever since through every seceeding ad- of a N w Yark correspondent of the London ministration and political canv as been true the T mes, which we fud in the N w York Herci 1: o' the Great Nation | Wa's party.

But Time that settle al quistio sat las be literally exact in say no the Kniw Notihas a ttl d he issues between the D mocratic ing movement has prostrated abolitionism, but and Wa'g arties, all but one of them. We it his gone further to effect that end than any believe the only open issue between them low other effort that has yet been mad e, the question of Lat r al I aprovements by the When it becomes triemphant, which it sur ly G neral G verrment; atd some of the varm- will, we have no doubt that it will speedily and st partising on both sides, ave abated mu h of successiuly throttle that monster. S ware th 'r preten leas en this point.

Bu' rom the shouldering a hes of the oll Council res of the two arverse camps there ias aris n a new lame and it has lurst with medilian colendor ov T the Tongth and bre dth o rar ess of the American party. lara Protectionist. It the subject of I ter- s. e. y parte. ts may a ways he nest'y cifer, but all con ld party distinctions thrown aside and all its he What perty is dea! I li es in its sternal inservative N tio al principles but the part brought it at lie is der lend and it is o long r org n'z d as a party, but is acting with the good and honest of all other parties for he pr s rvati n of our free ins itutions. lave o'ven some of the reasons that have incued us to change the name of our paper. And we may say though we think our con se advisable, we have not done it with ut a dash of regret and sorrow at parting company with so old a friend- One that has crought our name before the pople of the Sate and country and given us a reputation far beyond our deserts. One, though a decided political one that has not prejudiced the public mind against us or prevented as from being reated with a kindness & consideration t at never would or could hav been extended to any woman in any State but M'ss'ssippi. B sides the ame has just now breight up to as afresh, t'e great admiration we have always had for the Whig party of this Sate. During its whole existence we believe it has never carried a S ate election, and only once a Preside tial one. F w Wigs have ever held any office whatever, and yet the party has borne itself g llantl always wor ing, al on pushed along by the recklesness of the done i at part. In this it his accomplished its mison, and now like the g n rel of the bostile a nies at Talevera one of the & rest longht batt s of the Peninstlar war, who suspented hostilities vh 1 - the panting soldiers on either side quenched er thirst from the cool brook that ran between nem, we pause and drink from the same pur tream of patriotism that with all their bitternes ie two great i a ional parties have never los

Where not now time to notice his purile in the law we applied to a other or informa- whiggery. In truth, th y are far above and wide history, write a too ot a in letters of versal crafty and d agerous political spirit in Vicksburg may 25 roply to our article concer ing his perjury but mation as to what constitutes perjury; and we by n, the ephemeral sou sof the parties of blood and rapine, by which to judge it, we have connection with the Catho ic religion, -- a spirit are con rm di the b liefat All m r.d for mmorral) phonomena are was correct, from the la call attention once more to that new dev 1.p. Ou language was as fell ... The real of independent for the bene it of Waigs and Ca holicism, to de wi h a vast and m ghty polit- politics, but poi tico-Cath lie ment of word deformity whi his disp syed in tinction with this pe-jurist int. Index to draw is D mocrats, by protecting it from the various ical machinery—a michinery worked by cun-bouse, by the unmuzzled press, and at the b l-bouse, by the unmuzzled p his own confession, took a sel mn oath t at he gadly e-cape the P nitent'a y, but whose wg's who are incapable of self-government as are would be wal non- of the sere t of the' Know a man of hono mover needs. Under the laws the bigated laves of a foreign put ntate. Number order; yet he violated that oath be- of this State no false swearing is perjury unless. Tory propose, in a work, the limitation of "tender morey," but of impacable, life-rushing cause A children B I y and that "promises it be to a material matte, in a proceeding de- the rig tof suffrage to those born free, and fa- spikes and thorn. are not binding who the per or nance is nn. pending a a out, or before an out, or before an out, or before an out, or before an out, lawfil." But his own authority, Archies on &c. &c. "Hence, Mr. M. Kinn n cannot be hunoreds of thousands of ignorant or deprayed in the our of sacred investiture, yield a trong Paley, also says "pro nises of secrecy ought not convicted of legal pe jury, and made useful to subjects of foreign gove amounts, annually cast to "principalities or powers," that can consider to be violated although the public would derive he State within the wails of the P nitentiary. upon ou shores, without a single quali cation with the will anvan'age from the discovery. Such promises But s the fear of a v l penult es all that re t aims for t e exercises of the pricil g s of freemen. ly sovereign, the have been imparted upon any other condition. Our neighbor assumes the unlawfulness of or D.m crats may be in po at, and may adopt wherever the people wend? the p blic lose not int by the promise which cathe ext a judicially administered, to be too the wiscest and best measures, but they are all govern their own temporal affairs. they would have gained without it." (Moral de nitely settled to require argument. But he liable to be swept by the board, so long as which exacts such feally from its will that it di licult ei her by argum no or appeal "a ght hundred thousand foreigners voting as a impose a nol as dangerous obli ly kept out of t authority, to ed ablish such a position. I it am t, under the dictation of Archbishov Hugh s," and ile, and thus it a that, who ent, bewill do any good to the cause of our carned hims. It had ing a foreign title, and acknowledge. Catholic is a citizen, where it is a lighbor's most unworthy client, we will admit ling the supremacy of a foreign peter ate have tion or need department.

Writer that Mr. McKinnon did wrape in taking the supremacy of a foreign peter ate have tion or need department. n ighbor's most unworthy client, we will admit ing the supremacy of a foreign peter that Mr. McKinnon did wrong in taking the ex- the power of controling the op rations of the ance. And the A Deat is the Daniel of the chief of the chi fought between a Yan- tr.-judicial on he; but dies that estennate the the g vernment.

with him, that "the best way a to have as l'trie churce of Rome. Demagouge may say what in Our readers will notice that we have changed to do as possible with ouths. An cath will to thy please about religious tol ration; but unthe name of our paper from the Yaroo City bind a laste por a lar; and an honest man less all listory be a lie, the R mish Church has not of "the faith."

pen with so much f ree, is rather aw ard in .d. throughout the wide con nes of Chr atend m. vocati g a conduct which he would we the last it impiously assum a to be the vicar of the al-

MISSION-ROMANISM.

We make the following ex ract from a letter principle upon which it was founded - the prin- ald, and which discloses the views of a perhaps, even prejudiced, observer. He may not Greely, he Na ion I E a and all the more sa as a power in the Stat , to gain a foot-hall or gacious of the incendiary zin force e that re- this Contin nt--the poor refugres, who escaped sult, and se popen their b tteries upon this, from its dans of terture in the old wild, it is

"The Know Nothing movement configues to a we blieve it to be, that the L gate of the attract att nuot. Ultr. Suth rn m n attack P pe and Cardin l Prince (!, A chbish) this rese country - it has mi gl d og ther in the order as an a smot o abolitionism, and Hug s, wields it m frozing led dious and to converging rays forming a galaxy of light over North on anti-stay by men make war upon it as ur wide pread count y and that is the rise and pro slavery. The great contest is to be lought eggin undred thou a ! of the three millions of in the Saco. Viginia. I. Wheels deleated the votes cat in this R public, and has actually there, the order win be greatly strength n. d, dictated Cabin t M nisters and Envoys Plan A United States Bi k is an absol to and will propably sweep the country. A to potentiary, Sule, B kmon and Campbe L. len" - To Tariff of 1543 sat sats the most A its tans chartes of etal prestrut in the & t-

The eas his why Know Nothingingism was lies, to whose hands the peace a d welfare o in its inception hosaid to, on a in its results will the entire country were con ded-it must be prove destructive of abolitio ism, a e obvious, conceded that this "Political Fiction" funde me i a usm. On his plat orm now we se smile and cog nt. The Northern masse the closk of R ligion, has alrea y gained gig n found that the immerse foreign immigration tic proportions, and that it is high time that the upporters jo ned in aband of brotherhood to meckly cast upon our shores was a g coler and free Procestrat pe ple of this con try-if they stain our ir e institutio s from Foreign and more pressing ev i than southern slavery - that wish to continue free for there can be no various occupations, depriving them of their read of line, sowing broancast paupesion. crime an . b got y, a u at the same time in o I ndy us roug the rite of government. It coming to a just appreciation of this wast an portentious evil, th y justly threw out of view the i ag nary evil or slavery, and men of every shade of political opinion, after comparing views, readily agreed to combine to achieve : common deliver nee. Tais we tak to hav been the main-pring of Know-Nothing sm is the Yorth. Waile it was th s patent in un ting men of the most opposite sentiments, and even extinguishing the fury of fanaticism in the Northern States, it was not wanting in qualities, which peculiarly commend it to Southern hearts. It is noterious that ninestenths of the immigrants, besides many of them being criminals and paupers, and bigoted slaves of the Pope of Rome, are abolitionists, and settling in the North and West upon the lands which the demagogs in Congress tak from us to bestow upon them, give an undue preponderance to that portion of the Union and poison its teelings and n ame its projudices against the institutions of the South. To arrest this unnatural and illegit mate growth of abolitionis ", is one of the main objects, and will be one of he principle sults of success'ul K low N thingism. W ile this quality so justly comm nds this cause to Southern support, it at the same time imparts to it a wholesome sevour of Nationa ity. I. constitutes sit were, a te of sympathy and a character, of a NA ond party.

The 'D mocrat" o th's week, in not cing r m their publish d pla or . It fact we in . liti al to um all ju gmont upon religi n, whether an imperial sell of plunder and rapine. M. M K name is out again in a reply to the our discussion of the M K noon I tter, speaks agine that the public is n w fully pos seed of er or individuals or classes, where it is b your Note in what we suppose was in- of us personally in the respect all the secrets of the order, except the unpor- quistion that this r ligion has more in it of pot nied to b English, though t worll strike expect rem every gentleman. Our effusion tant one of the names of its members - which, litteal craft than of sadsaving God ness. Maray, K kind and Ballon with consterna- how wer, is not so k mily not ced, though of that as is clearly innocent in its I', and may oe To c me di ectly to the point, we do not agree anti-republican aspect, on the head-smite is tion. As to his mr s, W yland, Ale ander we cannot complain, since our editorials, when I ade substraint to useful and glorious results, that are ligion, like from an Catholicism, ju get they read his reply; for he again attempts to gil d to no more I nie cout in those of oth re I then our impressens of the principles record should be always the same - is utitled to array every jurist and moral st of any resp c- I or n ighbor will read mr rticl more be not cronecus, Hon. S ephen A lams was per that exemption from positical discussion and tability" in f vor of his perjury. In our 1, t care off he will discov r t at we did not inter- feetily to rect in procla ming that there w a ju gment which may be, and we think is due to tions as a Catholic, we must be equally true to is an we gave he own authoraty, A: hdeacon pret M. M K anone I tter as a con ssion of nothing in the mincompatitle with democracy, the unvaniting, unambiguous and sublime re-P by, 1 a ast his crime, and w now r p at it lega, but f no at perjury. Not being termed as there surely is not any thing r pugnant to ligion of J sus. No, it there were no worldin o mation the cay. Tay see ju chamen a in the ir char- seen enough in our midst in this, its most toler ubstanti- acter, nd goto the very basis of our institutions. alle and toler at ag, to satisfy as that, in coun-D marret. They pro, ose to preserve the R put he free and t rmining or meeting it face we have, in R ligion, purely, we would have de good government is an impossibility. Whige t ority, to be watched, a

A Business Maxis.—Ween you only, sell or tainly condemns o minon swearing, as all should much their interest as ours, that this violating if that will avail on hire, make a clear pargain, and never trust to do; but he nowhere justifies the violation of clement should be in laded from the sallot-box. The Catholic fold. oaths when taken or if feet i so, that would at They came here to get rid of such people- had the never bee once destroy his authority. That learned and just as our encesters came be me commentator sers, and we folly raree ago-flying and none, for his character and condu t swear at every period of its existence, and in every In our own country, we have seen but a mild known at ility and in for him. Out is suljet the advice of Epictes quart rof the globe, where it had power, been exercise of its spirit and power, yet enough to within our gift, and without disparagement to tus is very good; swear not as all if possible; a stupendous engine of tyranny and oppression. betray the hoary and profound despot and the time of any whom we have heard a oker of in If you cannot avoid it, do it little as you can." It fetters the soul and the imbs, and persecutes lies concealed beneath its local, temporary ina-Space will not permit farther remarks, but all dissent even ugto death. It always has bility. It has n t, among no, dared, or rather, It is needless to add, that this com we will endea or to know some commentaries been so and always will, f r it is of the very es- has not of en fit - for it is p little, and patient and settle the point in our next. We can only sence of its organization that no shadow of dis- w that - to re-thunder the motto of that Austrian ad I that our neighbor, who usual y wields the sent to its haughty dictates shall be tolerated brave of the Holy Alliance, who said "I will mighty on earth, commissioned from on high to I ose and to bind, to save and to damn--though many of its pri s hood are notoriously the most dissolute a d bandoned of the human race. Toat wiscest and greatest man, and stern st republican that England ever produced John Miton justly characterised it as a "polit . cal fact on vo'a religious e !;" and the great Taespirit is there, burning with hate a dveuge man who, at that time protected the commons wealth, Oliver Cromwell, himself an ardenfriend of r ligious freedom, though he knew now to cut G rdian Knots - - rotested that the Pipists could not be tolerated because they tol-

> Tais Caurch .- this "P I tical Faction," seeks pursuing in the wills of America. I it be true. oule an B mont both foreigners and Catho freedom without religious freedom it is high tim that they had taken the a ars. Unly s arr sted lecades can claps befor we shall b compelled o seek another Columbus to di cover a no world-wither we may take refuge with th ou iments of our freedom and househole gods I e issue having been made if it be decided as e se y to the ca se of the Native Protestant copulation of this land the scentre passes irrelai able and forever to the han's or Foreigners nd Papists.

Tie City of Vicksburg was lighted with as last Saturday Night for the first tim. T slitor of the Sentinel seems to have lost his heart he romantic city of H lls were out heart stealing er a lamp positiv ly irresistible. At least w and no heritics. ought so then. We could not help out imagine at the picture presented on our streets list flove v women, who never steal anything bu thereof is concerned, should not ent r among sier and the soord would beat the bon soi herthe tests by which the cit'z n is politically tried cay to dust; caring Galileos would sup in dunbond of union among all the cons reative par- of individual opinion and taith is a concern which of Presidents, would go a-toe-kissing, and per ties of this vast confederacy. Indel, Know- it is more safe to leave between man and his cha ce be gl d to expire some rebeliaus deed We are outsiders, but presume we correct'y been more irr l'gious had creeds and priests nev- ton ue-tiedslaves Protest-ants would be hu h appre end he principle and objects of the er exist d. But we do not agre with those ed, even to the stillness of the grave. Then Know N things, as we derive our impressions who would shut from the ballot box and the po- there would be a r re time for haven monk-

ROMANISM AND LIBERTY.

by its r cord, past or pres n -if intall bie, its er ages, clasped all was disputed its clai as, whether givine or t mporal, to a breast, not oests of their one bound, li Papal ambi- no jure all other all gi. the legislat of the chief: goes far her sentatives at only lat by when a muti- thought it

ted C tholic Ri

are of the religion which, of its: If is a per- other individual in our county. nal instigator to violence against all who are oppose a will of iron (steel!) to the progress of lioeral pri ciples; 'it has not ventured - save in petty instances to burn sacred or profane litersture in our highwayer it has not kindl d the material faggot, nor raised t e auto-da-fe; it has not denied all decent grave-space to "heritics. No, it is not bold and brave in defence of itself it does not sp rn time-ser ing policy, and unmask teel, at once, in all its hideous upliness auce, as deeply as on Barthelomew's Day, o when the Bohemian expiated his Prot santish in are, or the E up ror-monk of Yaste dabble his cruci x in heretic gore; but the time is not come to ma ifest it "in the desh, and God grant that it never may come.

But it has done al. it dared to do. It has seiz d on strong elem nts of temporal power, grasp ng for to P nti cal he d tem, 1 s, and treasures, and graves, reared, and coined, and dug by its blin . fodo wers sweat and blood. It has isolaced and armed its herd-with one weapon or ther -- gainst all hearty coalit on with the peo ple of the land. It has battled against fee thought and free speech, and particularly against the education of the children of the Land, free, and in commo . It te name of a religion which it dare not trust to he march of mind and the progress of events, it has stood like a rock f lint in the way of I be ty's watch-lights -ree . ltars and free schools. It has opposed, se etly always, and openly when it dared, whatver tended to make a people more free and

I it has veiled the pay ants and mummeries wh rewith it has deluded and de auched in other lands, it is because the intelligence of the n its pr gress to absolute dominion, but a few people at la ge would not tol rare them; or becans, perhaps, it has found ample work for its gen'us and craft in attempting to stem the cur rents of int lligeace, list they should so wider and swell, and burst, as to swire down th fesu stic-R man struct re, stripping despotism of its might est strongholl, and ridding freedom of he Jeudliest fo . We have had the toue programme of what Catholicism would do if it had the Stat in its clutche---as in Spain, or Naples, or Rome -- sounded in our ears by an Arch-bishop's or gan, "The She, herd of the Valley." It would suppress free schools and common schoo's; would crush or censor th . pr ss, and by any and in the occasion. Who of our lady friends about every means drive back the people to the c nvenient burbarism of ignoran e; it would mak by gas light, last Sa'urday nght? Hear the them serfs in mind, soul and body, and fin lly by putting on the inquisitorial screws of an "in "There is a magic about a fa'r face beaming un- fallible faith," have but one church, one fold, at all respectable Drug Stores in the United

Beautiful an I harmonious unity! We can Saturday was a good on in. Instead of bloaten fancy this consummation so devoutly labored for aces and the sha tow of mid night prowlers passing by "Shepherds of the Valley;" --- honest shepmeriedly along dark corn rs, we beheld the charm herds, ut belching the truth too so a; -- it would not be different from the State of Christendom ere the reformers arose; all knees would bend, or be broken, before "His Holiness" of Rome: We entirely agree with those who hold that all tongues would sing pean to the tenant of the I gion, in so far as the individual enj yment V. tican, or be lucked out by t e roots; the cro at the ballot box. R ligion, simply as a matter geons on horrors; emperors an a kings, and may Nothing sm is the o ly party or sm now n ex- maker, than to intrust it to arry third party, by a two cay's a i or d ub , in wintry pense. stence, which can lay any just claim to the whomsoever. So at least has its universal his- weather, in a Pope's ante-on mber. Ah, there tary proved. Mank nd could scarcely have would be unity; the unity of hand-bound and

But let as believe that a counter spirit i awake, a par of whos business it will be t smite this el gion, in so far as it Las a political. surely and swiftly. No intelligent C thelic, priest or laymen, con say that Roman C tholicism, un shorn, is compatible with liberty. H

ry. The mater can be narrowed down to just so small a point as t is. There is a deep, unithan any oth r I must be hunt dont and

S TARTIA, M .y 21 1855. ication from Deusons Box sugges . J. J. B. Waite as a mitable candidat sent us in our Senatorial Dis rict have

Although Col. White differed with many of us a county political points, yet his honest and independent bearing justifies, us in the belief that he sincere in every position touding to public invest and public welfare. Many voters at Saturtia bear, therefore most cheerfully subscribe to the sentiments in allusion to Co. White and we go in heartly and emphasis strived when it is usual for the pa has never been a cardidate for public station that we remember, and this is probably as favorable a time as any, to bri g forward men of

LIGHTS AND SHADOWS

BY MRP. H. K. PREWETT.

The rose is brightest, when tis t'pt with dew. And love is sweet at when tis n r ed in tears. Tan fa rest pr spect ralls n on the vier . If o'er the so me no shadowy cloud appears.

The sunbeam dancing on the ocean's breast, The moonbeam sleeping on the glassy lake, Owe half the charm that gives their beauty

To the dark waves that follow in their wake.

Fir is the rosy blush of morning ris; When not a cloud gloom on the brow of light it lovlier fa are summer ev ning skies, When stars bestu I the riven wing of n gat

And hop is sweeter when 'tis born o fears. And home is desirer afte, dange is preset, Ayeal the sienes that mark our circling Are lights and shadows c'er life's canvass cast

From the Southern Organ Friday Evening, Mey, 19, 1855. NEW ORLEANS MARKET. COTTON - The demand was control to a partes, and resulted in the sale of 3 CO baler at firm prices Ordinary 8 a 8 1-3 8 3-4 a y 9 1-4 a Good Middling 10 a 10 1 2 Middling Fair 10 3-4 a 11 Good Fair

Good and Fine Diseases of the Liver. When the celebrated Dr. Rush declared hat Brunkenness was a disease, he enauciated a ruth which the experience and observation of aedical men is every day confirming. The many pparently insene excess sof those who indulge n the use of spirituous liquors may be thus accounted for. The true consent conduct, which aken for intatuation is very frequently a discaed s ate of the Liver. No organ in the human vstem when deranged produces a more frightici atalogue of disease. And if instead of applying emedies to the manifestation of diseases, it is too ften the case, physicians would proscribe with a riew to the original cause, fewer deaths would realt from deseases induced by a deranged state of he Liver. Three tourths of the ciscuses en meated under the consumption lave their stat in a liseased I ver. See In. Gum's great works.)

Purchasers will olesse ask for Dr. M. LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS. and take none clse. There are other this this portag to be I iver Pills new before fire public. Dr. M. LANE'S LIVER PILLS also his CELERATED VERMIFUE, can now be had

SCOVIL & MEAD. No. 111 Chartres street NEW ORLEANS. General Wholessle Agents for the Southern Also by all respectable Daug stores in the

SEO REWARD. WILL be given to any person who will delivt at our stable on Main street, Yaxo Cay, the wo large brown MULES strayed from us on h 27th of March. The ninks are arg ine mes -- hod all round and shave u, with marks of ar, and when last heard of, were in the neighorhood of Col. Gartl ys. Any information respecting said mtl s wi i he thankfully received, conneration made for all trouble and ex-

BIRMINGHAM & CO. Y 210 City, May 20,1800:1

Albaia Ware. UST received a large supply of the inimilnie A bata Ware which is superio to Silecan wan more garable to si ver to which it bears close resemblance, and can scarce y be disunguisted from it Every article warranted and the meney will be retunded if it does not prove as represented-

Tes sets, Coffee Pots. Des rt Furks.

Sous and Gravy ladels, A GENELLA'S.

PUBLIC SALE.

A S the assignment of Powell & Hillind I will acid in from of the Court House on Monity the 25th day of June the following property, to-wit; One Coachee, One large Rockaway, arre blacksmith shop, The sale will be on a credit of six month J. H. LAWRENC

Assignee of Powell All persons indebted to Powell & Hilliard vill fied their claims in my hands and I A the on y person so horized to settle the cla

Assignment Powell a Hilliard May 25 1 thy-d.

建工程的基本的 H. H. SIMMONS, (of the Prepi Board per we k . . . .

A Hack will leave Canton of lock P. H. for the Springs vis

THITE LEAD. 6000 bbls jast re